

Could You?

Could you be my baby?
Could you be my sunshine?
Could you love me on Sunday?
And all the rest of time?

If we can find our way
Find something sweet and true
If we can ride this perfect wave
We can find our perfect new

Could you be my sweetness?
Could you be my one?
Could we sit on rooftops?
And stare into the sun?

If we can find our way
Down this path of love
If we can navigate
These wings of a dove

Could you be my something?
Could you be my soft?
Could we stare into each other's eyes?
And get forever lost?
