

Tremble and Shake

Is this mischief?
Is this cool?
The absence of guidelines
make us a fool

the arrow points left
the arrow points right
we linger too long
hoping something will bite

there ain't no map
to show us the way
we tremble and shake
and pretend to be brave

but I'll hold your hand and light up your soul you'll splash up your sunshine and light up our stroll
